Parish Mission:

As members of God's Faith Community at Santa Catalina Catholic Parish, we commit our lives to being the voice, hands, and spirit of Christ, as our way of continuing God's call to love and peace.

Misión Parroquial:

Como miembros de la Comunidad de Fe de Dios en la Parroquia Católica Santa Catalina, comprometemos nuestras vidas a ser la voz, las manos y el espíritu de Cristo, como nuestra forma de continuar el llamado de Dios al amor y la paz.

Parish Vision:

Together as a parish, we will strengthen our spiritual and personal lives so we can live out our mission as disciples. Led by the Redemptorist Charism, we will follow Christ the Redeemer, to build communities where all people can encounter the message of plentiful redemption, to serve the most abandoned, to minister to those in need and to be evangelized by them.

Visión Parroquial:

Juntos como parroquia, fortaleceremos nuestra vida espiritual y personal para que podamos vivir nuestra misión como discípulos. Guiados por el Carisma Redentorista, seguiremos a Cristo Redentor, para construir comunidades donde todas las personas puedan encontrar el mensaje de abundante redención, y servir a los más abandonados, ministrar a los necesitados y ser evangelizados por ellos.

As summer approaches, we anticipate the scorching heat of the Tucson summer, as well as the refreshing, cooling rains of the monsoons that replenish life in the desert.

There are times when we experience a dry desert in our lives. Spiritual crisis, loss of a loved one, loneliness, illness, disability, divorce, broken relationships, job loss, and many other challenges. In these times, we thirst for a “cooling cup of water” to revive our body and spirit.

God never intended for us to thirst alone in our times of need. Stephen Ministers are caring Christians who want to make a difference in the lives of those who are hurting. They are compassionate, trustworthy, skilled, and full of faith—someone who will exercise strict confidentiality, who will not judge, who will listen and walk faithfully with you in a distinctively Christian, one-to-one caring relationship on your journey of healing.

If you or someone you know could benefit from Stephen Ministry, please

May is Dedicated to Mary

It is a centuries-old custom of Catholics to dedicate the month of May to the Blessed Virgin Mary. May is always part of the Easter season, the fifty days we celebrate in the liturgy the Resurrection of Our Lord, a time of awaiting the outpouring of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost.

At the Visitation, Elizabeth said to Mary: "Blessed are you who believed that what was spoken to you by the Lord would be fulfilled". Our Lady is blessed not only because she was the Mother of Jesus, but because she believed in the Lord's words. She believed with all her heart and said "yes" to become the Mother of the Messiah and Son of God. She allowed herself to be led by God's grace throughout her life, rooted in a deep faith in God. She became her Son's first and most perfect disciple.

We hope to walk always with Mary at our side. She is our model of faith and she helps us with her prayers to live by faith. She teaches us to believe as she believed. Many churches and schools have celebrations of the crowning of images of Our Lady. This is a beautiful custom that expresses our love for the Mother of God as our Queen. Other Marian devotions are particularly fitting in the month of May. Of course, the holy rosary is always a wonderful prayer to enter more deeply into the mysteries of Christ's life with Mary. It is a Gospel Prayer.

All honor that we give to Mary is ordered to, and leads to, the adoration of God. Devotion to Mary fosters within us a faithful adherence to her Son. When we crown images of Mary, we are honoring her. In honoring Mary, we are ultimately praising God for the grace He bestowed on her. We all have our favorite images of Mary as well as our favorite devotions. They help us to know the virtues of Mary and remind us to turn to her for help.

May the Blessed Virgin Mary intercede for us and draw us closer to Christ her Son.

This Week's Gospel Reflection

A few months ago, I had the singular privilege of a private meeting with Pope Francis. We were a small group of pastors, composed largely of non-Catholics. The Holy Father wished to discuss our work for Christian unity. The phrase I remember him saying with greatest frequency was: Tutti dentro. It means, "Everyone in." He clearly wanted us to emphasize that the Church is made for the whole human race, not a select few. At the center of his concern was unity. We are all brothers and sisters, he said multiple times. The Church's primary longing is for everyone to join Her.

This longing is at the heart of this Ascension feast day. We hear the longest recorded prayer of the one whom Pope Francis En este pasaje del Evangelio de Juan, Jesús deja su testamento plasmado en la oración. Aboga por todos nosotros ante el Padre: "Yo les he dado tu mensaje y el mundo los ha odiado porque no son del mundo, como tampoco yo soy del mundo. No te pido que los saques del mundo, sino que los defiendas del Maligno" (Juan 17:14-15). Esta oración también es llamada oración sacerdotal. El Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica en el número 2747 lo explica de la siguiente manera: "La tradición cristiana acertadamente la denomina oración sacerdotal de Jesús. Es la oración de nuestro Sumo Sacerdote, inseparable de su sacrificio, de su paso, {pascual} hacia el padre donde él es consagrado enteramente al Padre".

represents. Jesus' concern is unity, praying to the Father, "that they may be one, even as we are one" (John 17:11). The deep unity of all people in Christ through the power of the Holy Spirit is what Jesus most desires. It is what he ascends to accomplish.

Do we have this same burning desire in our hearts, too? Or do we see Christian unity as an unrealizable dream? Or worse, as something that threatens our own narrow tribal interests? This feast is a wonderful time to consider our attitude toward Christian unity, and to commit to do whatever we can to foster it. It is the Pope's desire because it is that of Jesus — and it should be ours, too.

— Father John Muir

El Catecismo continua en el número 2748: "En esta oración pascual, sacrificial, todo está recapitulado en Él. Dios y el mundo, el Verbo y la carne, la vida eterna y el tiempo, el amor que se entrega y el pecado que lo traiciona, los discípulos presentes y los que creerán en Él por su palabra, su humillación y su Gloria. Es la oración de la unidad". El secreto aquí está en no dejarnos llevar por el maligno, por el pecado que todo lo descompone, lo divide y lo pudre. No dejemos que la división reine en la familia, la sociedad y en el mundo. Luchemos siempre por la paz. Pidamos, en este domingo, que seamos signos visibles de esperanza, sabiendo que tú Señor, no nos has dejado solos en el mundo. ¡Ven Espíritu Santo!

With the Lord, There is Plentiful Redemption.

Spiritual

Those words from Psalm 130 are the motto of the Congregation of the Most Holy Redeemer (the Redemptorists). Saint Alphonsus Liguori, the founder of the Redemptorist, chose those words to guide the Congregation because they expressed his most profound experience of God: God loves us lavishly and extravagantly. God's love is manifested most amazingly in the Incarnation of Jesus Christ, who gave himself entirely for God and for humanity—a self-gift that reached its highest point in his death on the cross.

In recent years, Redemptorists have come to a renewed and deeper understanding of the Church as the communion of believers entrusted with carrying on the redeeming mission of Jesus. The Church is the people of God, embracing all the baptized and inviting all to share in its evangelizing mission. So, Redemptorists have been seeking ways to involve others—laypeople especially—in their part of the mission of Jesus and the Church.

In North America, the desire has grown among the faithful to share in Redemptorists' spirituality and mission. The Redemptorist North American Commission for Partnership in Mission has fostered and nourished that desire in this Spirituality Series. We hope the series will deepen your understanding of Redemptorist's spirituality and, more importantly, deepen their Christian spirituality and communion with God.

[In the synagogue at Nazareth, Jesus] unrolled the scroll and found the passage where it was written: "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring glad tidings to the poor...liberty to captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free...."

Isaiah 61

Redemptorist spirituality is centered around apostolic and missionary practices. The scripture passage from Isaiah plays a crucial role in Redemptorist spirituality and prayer. Our pastoral compassion is directed towards the most abandoned as we strive to evangelize them while being evangelized by them.

According to the Hebrew Scriptures, the nearest blood relative or the redeemer is responsible for making things right. Jesus, the Redeemer, is at the core of all our prayers. The Eucharist is particularly precious to us as it renews and makes present the saving death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. As a communal celebration, it highlights the importance of community in Redemptorist apostolic life. We hold Mary, the Mother of God, in high esteem, particularly under the title of Our Mother of Perpetual Help, following the example of St. Alphonsus. All of this fills us with the desire to give our lives for plentiful redemption.

Spiritual-Bible Studies

I attend the Psalms study currently being held at Santa Catalina. The first lesson had us read Psalm 1 and meditate on it. Psalm 1 references the happy/blessed man who delights in the law of the Lord (scripture). We also recently looked at CCC104 which states "In sacred Scripture the Church constantly finds nourishment and strength". I am reminded that we are the church and although I am not sure that I always "delight" in reading scripture because sometimes I find it difficult to understand, but I certainly do find "nourishment and strength." I encourage you to sign up for the upcoming classes offered, not only to study God's Word but I also delight and find strength and nourishment in the friendships I have made.

Bi-annual Quilt Blessing

Our Project Linus quilts Blessing will be held on May 19th, at the 9am Mass. These quilts are to be on display at all of the weekend Masses. The quilts will then be picked up by the Project Linus Tucson Chapter, who will distribute them to 33 different recipient locations in the Tucson area. The Catalina Community Quilters, which gathers here at Santa Catalina Church, was established to support this needed mission. In the past few years, the demand for blankets has been very high! 650 blankets are delivered per month in the Tucson area!

Come join our group of quilters while helping children in need!

Saguaro Room 9am - 3pm
Monday, May 20th

Spend the entire day (bring a lunch) or part of the day. Bring your sewing machine, thread, and quilting tools. We provide blanket quilting kits and fabric, irons, ironing boards, cutting tools and mats. We have a few sewing machines and some sewing supplies here at church. Please stop by to see what this ministry is all about.

For information contact us by phone: 520-825-9611 or by email: lobby@santacatalinaparish.org.

We meet every third Monday of the month, unless otherwise stated.

Dishes, plates, cups, bowls, kitchen supplies. Furniture like sofas, kitchen tables and chairs, coffee tables, chairs. Items to setup a "home" that has nothing,

No used linens or towels please, these items must be new.

Volunteers are needed to help collect donations and deliver them to Lutheran Social Services.

Know Before You Recycle

The Caring for God's Creation Ministry would like to remind you:

No food, No liquids, No straws, No plastic cups or plastic dishware in the recycling bin.

Never put your recyclables in plastic bags and never put any plastic bags in your recycling bin. Plastic bags and wrap get jammed in recycling processing equipment, which causes recycling to be expensive to process.

Do Not put cheesy, oily pizza boxes in your recycling bin. Clean pizza boxes are fine.

No need to wash, however, please empty and scrape out the food or materials from all bottles, jars, containers, and cans before putting them in the recycling bin. For instance, if you have a peanut butter jar, just scrape it as clean as possible, but no need to wash it. Labels are ok, but please remove all metal lids from glass jars and recycle plastic containers with the lid on.

Do recycle clean paper and all clean and flattened cardboard boxes. If you have time, please remove all tape and plastic wrap that might be attached to the cardboard. No flexible packaging like chip bags and juice or soup pouches. When in doubt—throw it out.

Encouraging the homeless teens at Youth On Their Own (YOTO)

One of our parish's confirmands, Cielo Del Valle, helped with the collection for YOTO. She also made these amazing notes of encouragement for the teens that YOTO serves. She has made the day of several kids.

Your generosity helped a family in need

A grandmother came in who was supporting her daughter and two grandchildren as a caregiver. She had lost her client and her rent was due. One grandchild is severely autistic and his mother cannot work because she cares for the child. St. Vincent de Paul was able to pay the rent to keep a roof over their heads. They were living in a run down trailer that had no beds. One of the Vincentians was aware of a live-in caregiver position and recommended her for a job interview. She got the job and she has now moved her family into a nice apartment.
