Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults

R.C.I.A. Team Members Wanted!

- Sponsors
Must be willing to walk the conversion journey with a candidate as friend and fellow traveler. This is an excellent opportunity to renew your own knowledge of faith while serving as mentor and role model to others. Time required: up to two hours each Wednesday evening mid-September to May. Training will be provided.
- Facilitators
Must be adept at integrating all participants into open, small group discussions. A willingness to share own life experiences essential. Experience as RENEW group leader or Encounter Retreat table leader useful but not essential. Time required: up to two hours each Wednesday evening mid-September, through mid-November.

Warning! Has been proven addictive in the past.
Training provided.

Presenters/Catechists

Must have desire to share Catholic traditions and doctrine with candidates. Willingness to share own faith journey essential. Should be capable of speaking to groups and leading open discussions. Time required: one evening every six to eight weeks December to May plus preparation time. Training and research assistance provided.

Cooks

Willing to bake/provide cake, cookies, coffee, tea, soft drinks, etc. for snacks. Frequency depends on number of volunteers. Donations of soft drinks or cans of coffee can be left at the Pastoral Center.

Hosts/Hostesses

Help us set up, serve snacks, extend a welcoming hand for the parish community. Cooks may also double as hosts on the night they prepare snacks. Families welcomed and encouraged.

Special Presenter

From time to time we would like to be able to offer short presentations on parish history, Catholic traditions, etc. If you have the background and desire to offer such a presentation contact us at 520.825.5505.
