Nativity of the Lord

This may not seem like the most seasonally appropriate comment, but I really dislike camping. I love the outdoors during the day, but give me a hotel bed at night. Others see camping in a much different light, but for me it involves too much dirt, too little sleep, and an unfortunate lack of electricity and running water. I don't need the Ritz, but camping is just too bare bones for me.

This is why I'm so struck by the Greek translation of the verse from John's Gospel we hear at Christmas Mass during the day: "And the Word became flesh and pitched his tent among us" (John 1:14). Pitched his tent among us. Not an RV. Not a camper. Not a hotel room. Simply a tent. Bare bones. Vulnerable.

The divine tent was pitched in the dirt where animals slept.

This is how God chose to come—and come among us. Not over us. Not above us. Among us. It's as completely simple and completely mysterious as that.

In the weeks leading up to this wonderful day, we've certainly been surrounded by and probably participated in much feasting and purchasing and planning—some of it to excess, for sure. Many presents were bought, festive parties planned, special food prepared. It's good and right to celebrate with friends and family and to share our blessings generously with those in need.

But the deepest truth of what we celebrate today is that God came among us in simplicity. There was little fuss, just a poor couple in a poor place. The divine tent was pitched in the dirt where animals slept.

God came as a vulnerable, helpless child—a mystery as old as the ages, but ever new each Christmas. Celebrate it well today. Merry Christmas!

PARISH & MINISTRY NEWS

A NEW TRADITION FOR THE MUSIC MINISTRY

Thank you to the members of the music ministry who have worked so hard to provide beautiful music for the Christmas season. The first annual Christmas concert was a night to remember and the beginning of a new tradition for Santa Catalina Church. The musicians who put in many hours of their time to bring music to our Liturgy are a very dedicated group of people. They don't just sing songs or play notes; they practice with love, patience, and a sincere desire to give to the community through musical praise to God. It is far too easy to let music fade into the background, not realizing the heartfelt time and talent that goes into the process of leading sung prayer. In fact a job well done is often forgotten and regarded as just a few minutes of sound during our brief hour together in worship each week and on Holy Days. Music in worship gives us the opportunity to be a symbol of the love we share between ourselves, God, and others. Time spent practicing, trying to perfect and hone, accepting where we are at any given date in time, praying, helping, and moving forward in a sense of love and giving – in all of this, music can deliver that brief moment in time where we are at one, in a wave of sound that travels through the ages. Yes, music can do all of that and at Santa Catalina, thanks to our members who give of themselves this does indeed happen, subtly and beautifully. I give my great thanks to God for having the opportunity to be the Music Director at Santa Catalina and for the opportunity to be among you all in praise and thanksgiving. I wish for this Christmas and the upcoming New Year to bring us all the comfort and knowledge of God's love.

– Victoria Kinghorn, Music Director

BIBLICAL WISDOM LITERATURE-BY SR. KAREN BERRY, OSF

This six-week course will be offered on Thursday mornings, January 12 through February 16, from 10:00 to 11:30.

This course will be based on material presented by Fr. Joseph Koterski of Fordham University. Through a careful study of the wisdom books, this course tries to show that the "wisdom" offered by the Bible refers to the understanding, the knowledge, the good sense, and the insight that comes ultimately from God but that is accessible to us in various ways, both by receiving the wisdom that God offers and by thinking things through for ourselves. The course suggests three primary forms of "wisdom": the wisdom that God would teach us; the wisdom that nature, cosmos, and creatures have to teach us; the wisdom that is the result of human effort arising from reflection on experience. Bring a bible to the classes.

The cost for the classes will be .50 per week (total of $3) for the "Catholic Update" articles and other materials which will be provided. Please call the parish to register, so an adequate number of hand-outs can be prepared by Sr. Karen.

SHOW THEM YOU CARE!

When you see people who are sad, lonely, or grief-stricken, don't just tell them you care – show them you care.

Ask how they are, listen to what they have to say, share the love of Jesus. And, if their need is great, encourage them to consider Stephen Ministry as a way to receive the transforming love and care of Jesus. Show them you care, and you can make a real difference in their life. Call Judy at:825-9611, ext 104.

SOMEONE YOU SHOULD KNOW

Our series continues with an active member from the 7am Mass, Diane Pettit. Diane and her husband, Bill, moved to Saddlebrooke approximately four years ago. They have three children and four grandchildren. Diane spent her working years as an administrative secretary while Bill kept busy as a self-employed farmer. They are both involved in various organizations in our parish.

Since becoming a parishioner at Santa Catalina, Diane has become an Eucharistic Minister at the 7am Mass and joined the shawl ministry. Bill is active with the Knights of Columbus. They also volunteer at the Golden Goose and at the Oro Valley Hospital. Other activities outside of church include hiking, fitness, and the computer club.

CHRISTMAS FAMILY FUN NIGHT

Our Parish families, young and old, made a great showing this past Saturday night for our second annual Christmas Family Fun Night. The evening gave our Parish community an opportunity to come together to eat and have fun. There was something for children big and small; young and old including a yummy pasta dinner, cookie decorating, dancing to Christmas carols, and photo opportunities with Santa. The Matachines also joined in the fun as they gathered for their yearend celebration.

Thank you to the Spirit of Motherhood group, which made this new annual event such a success. Please mark your calendar for our next Family Fun event on Sunday, March 11, 2012 as we welcome the Spring season with a Parish Picnic.

DID YOU KNOW?

Do You Believe in Santa?

By Mark Hart | December 6, 2011

… it's story time! So let's sit back and review, shall we?

God, the Creator of all creation, became human? In fact, He not only became human, but became a needy, delicate, vulnerable baby? And not only was He a baby, but a baby born to poor, lower middle class parents? And as if that weren't enough, He wasn't even given a room or a home or a bed? Does that seem too much to believe? Seem too far-fetched and ridiculous? Have a hard time putting your faith in such a "figure?" Many do.

For some folks, the simple yet unfathomable facts surrounding the birth of Jesus are just "too much" to comprehend. So, rather than meditate on them in prayer, they reduce the nativity story to just that . . . a story. Sad, but true.

Well, let's take a look at another story – another historical fact – that you may or may not know.

It's intriguing that so many people in our culture can put their "faith" in Santa Claus but consider the story of Jesus to be a fabrication. In fact, many people don't even realize that the Santa story is an extension and exaggeration of a great saint – Nicholas.

St. Nicholas was born in (what is now) Turkey in 280 AD and died on December 6th, 343. He led a difficult life beginning with being orphaned at the age of nine. He went on to study philosophy and Christian doctrine (no, not toy engineering) and was considered quite an outspoken troublemaker by Emperor Diocletian, who wanted him to stop preaching Christianity. He would be jailed not once, but twice for his evangelization and eventually be named a Bishop of the church early in the fourth century. (Yes, that's right "Kris Kringle" had a criminal record.)

Nicholas was known for his generosity. As tradition goes, he was so selfless that (although he, too, was poor) he helped his likewise poor neighbor support and pay for his daughters' weddings. Nicholas snuck up to his neighbor's house at night and dropped a handful of gold coins through the open window so that the eldest daughter could afford to get married. He would later repeat the generous act two more times. From there, the Santa legend grew into what we now know today – stockings, chimneys, a belly like jelly and all that good stuff.

The real, "true life" story of St. Nicholas, though, is one of suffering, simplicity, generosity and humility. The nativity of Jesus is the same kind of story. Both were unseen by millions, but both are true.

Both stories have changed our modern world, but only one opened the gates of Heaven.

The truth of what God did, by becoming man, is a story that isn't sensational enough for some. How that is, I'm not sure. Still, the Christmas story of Jesus' birth has all the beauty, intrigue and heroism that we seek. That being said, it still requires faith and an open heart to accept it.

Some people get more caught up with the star in the sky, than the one in the manger. Many would rather read their futures in the stars in the Heavens, than in Heaven itself. Don't ever get so comfortable with the popular notion of Jesus "the good person" that you lose the truth of the story of Christ.

He is Jesus, your Lord and Savior.

He is God, and He came down here for you.

LEARNING ABOUT THE MASS WITH KATH AND QUMEN

THE AMBO

The Word of God is so important for us that there is a special place in God's house from which it is read. We call this the ambo. The only time that the ambo is used is for the Readings, the Gospel, the Homily and the Prayer of the Faithful.

MINISTER OF THE WORD

The person who reads at Mass is called the Minister of the Word. They are people who have volunteered to read at Mass. They will have had to do some training so that they are able to do the best job they can. Their job is very important. The readings at Mass come from the Bible. They are the Word of God, and so we can say that we hear God speaking to us through the voice of the Minister of the Word.
