The Israelites seem to regret their choice of an adventure in the wilderness with God.

Liguori, MO 63057-9999

AS AN ADOLESCENT I loved a popular book series called Choose Your Own Adventure. You'd read for several pages and then be faced with a choice: "Turn to page 67 if you want to explore the castle," or "Turn to page 82 if you want to continue across the stream." Many endings were possible, and you could end up regretting your choices if the story didn't go the way you hoped, but it was always an adventure.

In today's Exodus reading, the Israelites seem to regret their choice of an adventure in the wilderness with God. They appear to have forgotten the harshness of their Egyptian enslavement. Faced with the insecurity of life in the wilderness without the certainty of daily bread, the Israelites complain bitterly to God that they'd rather be back in Egypt, where at least they had their three daily squares. Their current challenges lead them to forget how God led them out of slavery and promised to be with them always.

But though their complaints may shock us, are we very different? How many times, when life becomes difficult, have we forgotten God's goodness? How often have we tried to rely on ourselves rather than trusting that God is with us even when the adventure of life feels insecure and shaky?

It is a focused choice to believe God is with us, to believe Jesus really is the bread of life, and to commit to such trust. It's what Saint Paul preaches to the Ephesians – "put away the old self of your former way of life" and "put on the new self" that is willing to choose the adventure of life with God, as rocky and bumpy as it sometimes may seem.

TEAM FORMATION

We are beginning to form the 2012-2013 R.C.I.A. team.

Preparation of adult candidates for Baptism, First Eucharist, and Confirmation is the responsibility of the entire community. Although many members of last year's team are returning; we still need more help. Please consider joining us in this ministry as a catechist or sponsor or by preparing snacks for a meeting.

Please contact Greg and Shirley Nelson, 465-5690, or Tim and Nancy Mosman, 825-2736, to find out how you can assist in this ministry.

STEPHEN MINISTRY

Who Benefits from Stephen Ministry?

Everybody benefits from Stephen Ministry. Those receiving care from Stephen Ministers benefit because they receive prayer and support throughout the crisis they face. Stephen Ministers benefit through the spiritual growth they experience from being involved in meaningful ministry. Fr. Larry benefits because our C.A.R.E. ministry is expanding, and fewer people will slip through the cracks. Most of all you benefit from the knowledge that special care is available to you should you need it. In addition, you now have a place where you can refer a friend, neighbor, coworker, relative, or anyone else you know, who is going through a difficult time, so that they can receive special care when they need it most. Stephen Ministry makes Santa Catalina Catholic Church a much more caring place!

Please feel free to contact Judy for information about this ministry at 520-825-9611, x104 or careministry@santacatalinaparish.org.

Doris Bunzey-

"For me the class is relaxing and fun. Also, no matter how our work turns out, it is a "work of art". The class is free and so are the supplies. You can't beat that.

Everyone is so helpful and friendly. If you like art and crafts but think you have no talent this class is for you!"

ARTS AND CRAFTS GROUP FOR SENIORS

On Tuesday, August 7, we will give an overview of the projects we have covered since last October. We will be showing you examples of finished projects and projects yet to cover.

This day is especially for newcomers, to show you what we do and how much fun it is. The participants have also established a bond and friendships have grown.

We will take a vote as to which project everyone would like to do at our next class on August 21.

Please call Mary Bubla at 825-0500 to register. All supplies are provided and these classes are free!!

We look forward to meeting you. Please, join us this Tuesday at 1:30pm in the Cholla Room.

The Knights of Columbus Prolife Committee

The human development begins at fertilization when a male sperm unites with a female ovum to form a single cell – a zygote. This highly important cell marked the beginning of each of us as a unique individual.

This all seems so simple and evident that it is difficult to picture a time when it wasn't a part of common knowledge. The beginning of a single human life is conception!

NEW R.C.I.A. PROGRAM STARTS THIS FALL

If you are an adult Catholic desiring to complete the Sacraments of Initiation, that is, receive First Eucharist and/or Confirmation, this is for you. Our first meeting will be on September 26.

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN BECOMING A CATHOLIC OR KNOW SOMEONE WHO IS?

Come to our meetings for Inquirers. These will be informational sessions for prospective Catholics where you can ask questions, and obtain information on the Catholic faith – i.e., what do Catholics believe, how do we pray, why we do what we do. The first meeting for Inquirers will be held on September 26.

Please contact Greg and Shirley Nelson, 465-5690, or Tim and Nancy Mosman, 825-2736, for information on upcoming formation classes.

To our New Parishioners

Thank you for being a member of Santa Catalina Catholic Church. Your presence is important to our parish community. We, Fr. Larry and the staff, care about you and want to do our best to be bearers of Christ's love to you and your family. Please let us know how we may help you by contacting us at the Pastoral Center.

YOUTH CORNER

Now What? Advice for After a Youth Conference

By Alison Griswold | July 23, 2012
<http://lifeteen.com/now-what-advice-for-after-a-youth-conference/>

You've just spent a week-end at a conference. You've sang silly songs, listened to talks, eaten sweet tarts for breakfast, and gotten less sleep than you ever thought you could function on. Dragging your duffel bag into your bedroom, your mom follows you, asking "do you have any dirty laundry? Did you have fun?" you look at her, your bed, and your laptop. They all want your attention, but mumbling to your mom, you crash into bed and sleep for 14 hours.

When you wake up, you look at your floor, strewn with t-shirts, phone numbers of friends, and your journal. You remember the moments that challenged you, the resolutions you made to make changes in your life: to delete the songs on your computer, to change who you hang out with, and to basically be the Mother Theresa of the tenth grade.

After an encounter with God at a camp or conference, it can be a challenge to transition back to the "real world." It's tough with a great youth group, supportive friends, and Core Members and parents who totally get it; it's even harder when you feel that your friends and family don't understand what you just experienced. While no transition back home is seamless, consider the following while you're washing your new t-shirts and uploading your photos.

TAKE CARE OF YOURSELF.

After Christ healed Jairus's daughter, his instructions to her weren't, "now go tell everyone in your homeroom that I'm awesome." The Gospel of Luke tells us that Christ "took her by the hand and called to her, 'Child, arise!' Her breath returned and she immediately arose. He then directed that she should be given something to eat" (Luke 8:55-56). Christ heals a girl and the first thing he says is to eat something! The Lord knows our human limits — He became man as well. Often, when we're away we lose sleep, don't drink enough water, and let's not even mention the absence of fruits and veggies. After saying "hey" to the rents and offering a prayer of thanksgiving, follow the lead of Christ: eat something, drink some water, and get some sleep.

TELL YOUR PARENTS WHAT YOUR WEEK WAS LIKE.

Maybe your parents love being Catholic and are excited for you. Maybe they don't get it, or didn't even want you to go. Don't mistake their lack of understanding for disinterest. Be patient with them, tell them about what you and your friends did and answer their questions. Tell them about how your relationship with God has changed. God uses you to be present to the world, and your family is no exception to that.

RE CLASSES STARTING SOON

Registration for RE Classes, grades K-8,
 this fall will begin
 Saturday and Sunday,
 August 18-19
 after all Masses.

BE PATIENT WITH YOUR FRIENDS.

You'll have to be patient with both those who experienced the event and those who didn't. Commit to helping each other build good habits like personal prayer, participating in the Sacraments, and making good choices. If you have friends that stayed home, be understanding. Don't make inside jokes or comments, but invite them to participate in the future.

If you wish you didn't have to go home after an experience of encountering Christ, you're not the first. After Peter, James and John witnessed the transfiguration of Christ, they asked if they could construct tents (Mark 9:5) and remain on the mountain. Experiences of dynamic worship or service in community with our peers are a gift that allow us to experience a taste of heaven — and give us the grace to persevere when we grow discouraged after leaving the mountain.
