I'm in the minority when it comes to coffee. To me, it's foul-tasting dark-colored water, but to most Americans it's the best-tasting stuff on earth. Most Americans depend on their morning cup of joe to start their day: "I'm just not myself until I have my morning coffee." They can't imagine going a day without it.

Honestly, the same could be said of the Holy Spirit. Today on Pentecost we remember and celebrate the first gift of the Spirit to the disciples, but it's also a day to say thank you for that incredible ongoing gift in our daily lives.

Saint Paul writes, "No one can say 'Jesus is Lord' except by the Holy Spirit." True—we can't proclaim Jesus as Lord without the Spirit, but we also can't do much of anything without the grace of the Holy Spirit. We can't love, can't forgive, can't survive hardship, can't heal—without the ongoing movement of the Spirit. So we can say about the Spirit what we say about our morning java—"I'm just not myself without it."

Saint Paul writes that we are all given to drink of the same Spirit. It's an intriguing image—how do you "drink" the Spirit?—but a most appropriate one as we understand how energizing, motivating, and life-giving the Holy Spirit is.

Today, let's ask the Spirit to rush into those places in our lives that need to be revived, those areas of our hearts that are weary and worn.

And when sipping your coffee, imagine drinking in the Holy Spirit—and thank God for this most amazing gift.

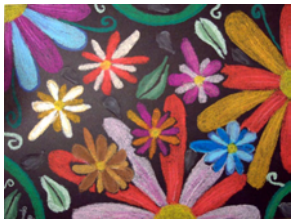
Contemplative Desert Retreat

Frs. Coury, Wiest, and May are offering a Five Day Contemplative Retreat, May 15-19, at the Redemptorist Renewal Center. They will guide the participants through the contemplative practices of Centering Prayer, Lectio Divina, and Image Meditation. This is an opportunity to enter more deeply into the mystery of God and you! There is more information in the church lobby, or call 744-3400.

Arts & Crafts for Seniors



In class this Tuesday, May 21 we will be experimenting with a new medium we haven't used before. We will be painting with Oil Pastels on black paper. The subject matter will be of your choosing. Flower bouquets are great, as well as landscapes. Bring your own photos to draw from or use the ones we will provide. All materials are provided and the class is free.

The class is held in the Cholla room from 1:30-3:30pm. Please call Mary Bubla at 825-0500 to register. Bring a friend or two.

Market on the Move

MOM will be holding their last food market this month on Saturday, May 25 from 7am to 10am. This earlier start time will help keep the fresh produce out of the warm temperatures of the late morning. Don't miss out on this great opportunity to get 60 lbs. of farm fresh veggies for your $10 donation. Pull out the grill, invite family and friends, and enjoy grilled vegetables this weekend!

Would you like to be a Hospitality Minister?

If you are looking for a way to serve in our parish, then I have a great opportunity for you. The Hospitality Ministry is looking for people who can serve at the 4pm Mass on Saturday and the 7am Mass on Sunday.

If you are interested or need more information, please call Stacy at 825-9611, x105.

In the spirit of Pentecost, please wear RED to church on Saturday, May 18 and Sunday, May 19.

Come join us on Saturday, June 8 at 5:30pm (after the 4pm Mass) in the Parish Hall for a night of:

Pizzas

Plus

Board & Card Games

Bring your favorite board game from home to share. This will be a great opportunity for parishioners, old and new, young and seasoned to come together and kick off our summer with a night of food, games, and prizes.

Sponsored by Spirit of Motherhood

Donations gladly accepted.

Creating a Catholic Legacy

You are Invited to a free Workshop

to learn about Wills, Power of Attorney and Trusts

Wednesday, May 29, 2013

10:30 am to 12:00 noon – Santa Catalina Parish

14380 N. Oracle Rd.

Give, and it will be given to you. They will pour into your lap a good measure, pressed down, shaken together, and running over. For by your standard of measure it will be measured to you in return.

Luke 6:38

Santa Catalina Parish and the Catholic Foundation for Stewardship and Charitable Giving for the Diocese of Tucson are hosting this free workshop.

This workshop is designed to help you understand the importance and significance of creating a legacy and learning the various ways to do that.

This will be a 90-minute interactive presentation, allowing plenty of time for questions, all facilitated by a volunteer attorney.

Find out why you should have a will and how to plan for it. Also, learn about ways you can make a donation, yet receive income for the rest of your life when you make a gift to the Catholic Foundation for Santa Catalina Parish.

Through planning your will, you can make a legacy gift to support Santa Catalina Parish or any other program in our Diocese.

Special thanks to Tim Struse, Attorney at Law, for offering his time to present this workshop.

For questions and to RSVP, contact Nancy Kirk, CFRE
Director of Major & Planned Giving, Catholic Foundation for the Diocese of Tucson
(520) 838-2508 or nkirk@cathfnd.org
Please RSVP by May 28, 2013

YOUTH CORNER

Lupita is busy planning for the next school year!

Lupita Parra is the new Director of Youth Ministry here at Santa Catalina. Lupita has always been an active member of the parishes she has attended. She volunteered as a Catechist and has been a member of many church Choirs. She has also been on the church staff as the Jr. High Coordinator at St. Elizabeth Ann Seton for four years and at Most Holy Trinity as a Youth Minister for seven years.

Lupita enjoys working with the youth. She believes that they need a safe, positive and accepting atmosphere; a place where they can come and feel welcomed. She creates a fun and comfortable environment in activities such as; retreats, day of reflection, lock-ins, variety show, programs and plays. She believes that the youth need to become involved and in order to do so they need to feel a sense of belonging. This opens them up to learn about their Spiritual faith.

Lupita works closely with the church community and parents. She recruits and trains her volunteers. She also provides the parents of participating teen's workshops, retreats and gives them tools to communicate with their teen.

Lupita is a native Tucsonan. She is a mother of two adult children and one grandson. She enjoys singing, going to the movies with family and friends and spending time with her grandson.

Please keep her in your prayers as she begins her ministry here at Santa Catalina.

LEARNING ABOUT THE MASS WITH KATH AND QUMEN

COMMUNITY ANNOUNCEMENTS

Sometimes, just before the end of Mass, the priest will read a list of things that are happening in the community during the coming week. This reminds us of the importance of the community in which we live. It also reminds us that God's family doesn't just come together on a Sunday in God's house but that there are lots of other times when we gather together. The community might get together for fun, for sporting activities, to help those who are in need or to learn more about their faith.

Whenever we gather we must remember that we are part of God's family.

ATTENTION

All High School Students of the Parish

Have you ever wanted to participate at Mass, by helping the priests on the altar, reading from the bible, assisting with the distribution of the host or wine, or greeting parishioners as the enter the church?

We have a wonderful opportunity for you to make that wish come true!

Training for ALL these ministries will be offered especially for you!

Lector & Ministers of Hospitality Training

This Sunday, May 19, 6:30pm in the Church.

Altar Server & Eucharistic Minister Training

Tuesday, May 28 at 6:30pm in the Church.

(If you are interested in serving as a Eucharistic Minister, you must be confirmed.)

Please come both nights, if you are not sure how you want to serve our parish.
