November 30, 2014 + First Sunday of Advent (B)

When my mother became pregnant with my youngest sister, I was old enough to be involved with the preparations for her birth. We added a crib to the room she would share, and we gathered clothes and toys suitable for an infant. I wasn't sure we'd get everything ready in time, and it seemed like forever before she arrived. We didn't know exactly when she'd go into labor, but when she did, we each had a job to do at home while my father took her to the hospital. I was overjoyed when my mother brought her home just before Christmas.

Advent is the Church's time to prepare for new birth. My family had nine months to get ready for my sister. The Church calendar gives us only four short weeks to make our hearts ready to receive Christ.

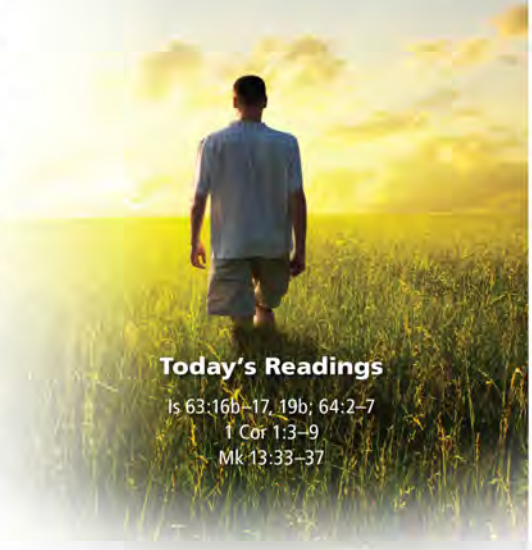

How do we do that? The Scriptures help us by recalling both the promise of his coming and the exhortation to stay awake because we don't know when it will happen.

How odd, we might think. Christmas is always December 25—of course we know when Jesus is born. What we have to remember is that while Christmas celebrates Jesus' birth at a particular time and place over 2,000 years ago, it also reminds us that Christ is alive today, waiting for us to open our hearts to him. It reminds us that Christ is coming again and that we don't want to be caught napping when he does.

We also prepare by taking extra time to pray, to practice kindness and service, and to remember those in need.

Where will Christ be born in you this Christmas? Will you be ready?

*Christ is alive today, waiting for us to open
our hearts to him.*

PARISH NEWS

Notes from Fr. Larry

Grow Up

Last Monday, in two separate conversations the phrase "grow up" was used, but not in a negative sense. When we tell someone to "grow up" we normally use it because they are acting childish or not their age. In these cases it was used in reference to faith and how our faith needs to "grow up." If we think about it, how many of us are acting out a faith that is as mature as our calendar age? Our faith needs to grow as we age. We all know people whose faith has remained in grade school or high school, while they went on to physically mature, because that was the last time they attended a catechism class or bible study. They tend to have a narrow understanding of God and God's love for them because a child's understanding of love is limited. Our faith in God needs to grow to match the new situations we find in life. If not, we will end up with a faith that is too small to handle daily problems and then we experience a crisis of faith.

When a loved one dies, our faith in God needs to grow or "grow up" or we get caught in a grief that cannot see beyond the moment to the resurrection that is promised to each of us. If we only have a faith in a God who judges, we cannot see a God that loves us so much that when we die, he takes us to himself and we live again.

St. Paul challenged the Philippians to grow up and stop their grumbling and to work joyfully for the kingdom. When our faith is not strong enough, we begin to grumble and complain that things are not the way they used to be rather than allow our faith to grow up and see new things.

Let us ask God to help us "grow up" and have a mature faith that can handle the challenges of daily life.

Peace, Fr. Larry

THE TAMALES FOR LAS POSADAS ARE READY

Thanks to everyone who came and helped with the making of the tamales. They spent all day, last Thursday, preparing the masa and soaking the husks! Fr. Larry tasted them and he says they are delicious! You won't want to miss a chance to taste these! So join us for Las Posadas on Sunday, December 14 at 6:30 in the Parish Hall and experience this joyous Mexican tradition.

MARKET ON THE MOVE (COMMONLY REFERRED TO AS MOM): "FINDING ABUNDANCE – FILLING NEED"

Through wind and rain and darkness of morning, volunteers persevered to bring an abundance of produce to the needy and those who would share with the needy. The Community of Santa Catalina Parish received monetary donation from the "3000 Club" for hosting the events for last year's MOM season.

The Human Concerns Ministry chose four charities from submitted suggestions to share those donations. They are:

Tri-Community Food Bank in Mammoth, AZ: Though this food bank receives food from various sources, it does not receive any fresh produce. This money will help them to provide fresh produce to those in need.

Beads of Courage: An organization that provides innovative arts-in-medicine supportive care programs for children coping with serious illness.

www.beadsofcourage.org

Youth on Their Own: An organization to support the high school graduation and continued success of homeless youth by providing financial assistance, basic human needs, and guidance. www.yoto.org

Wheels for Kids: This organization in Oro Valley collects used bikes, completely overhauls them, and then partnering with charitable organization, gives them to those in need free of charge. www.azwfk.org

All four shared $2,000. They are not for profit organizations with a 501(c)(3) designation. Our volunteer team's dedication has made the donations possible for the poor and needy in our local and nearby areas.

CHRISTMAS FLOWERS: IN HONOR OF A LOVED ONE

As is our tradition at Santa Catalina Parish, we invite you to contribute to our Christmas flowers by a making a monetary donation in honor of your loved ones. Please fill out this form so we can list your loved one's name in our bulletin after Christmas. Cash and checks may be put in the collection baskets at our weekend Masses, or dropped off at the Pastoral Center. Please be sure to label the envelope "Christmas Flowers".

Advent - Expectation, Preparation, & Penance

I think that we forget about Advent because we are focused on Christmas. We are worried about getting the right gift., having enough money, and enough time to get everything done by then. It doesn't help that everywhere we go we are reminded of the things we should be doing to have a Merry Christmas. Why do we fall into this trap? Christmas is the day we celebrate Christ @Mass. We get so busy preparing for the festivities that we forget about the beauty of Advent.

LIFE TEEN GOSPEL REFLECTION - (MARK 13:33-37)

When This Gospel reflection reminds me of taking action and following in Christ's footsteps. The Lord is calling me, I have the choice to answer that call. This Gospel also reminds me of knowing that God has a special plan for all of us, the doors are always open. Through prayer I can listen to the Lord's plan for me. I believe we were made for something more everyday and that is God's promise to us. Whenever I am feeling worried or afraid I pray to God for support and trust. God will come through always and he will never abandon you. This passage reminded me of saying, "Lord I trust in you no matter what."

SPECIAL OFFERING FOR THE SNACK PACK PROGRAM

Santa Catalina Catholic Church, along with Vista de la Montana Methodist Church, participates in the Snack Pack program of the Community Food Bank of Southern Arizona. The purpose of the program is to provide supplemental food to children who are considered to be nutritionally at risk. Santa Catalina and Vista share equally in the cost of nutritious, child-friendly food. Each week for 36 weeks during the school year, volunteers sort and pack the food into "Snack Packs," which are delivered to the Coronado K-8 School in Catalina on Friday mornings. At the end of the school day, 50 children receive these snack packs. Currently, 11 volunteers from Santa Catalina and 11 from Vista participate, on a rotating basis, in the preparation of the "Snack Packs." This food truly makes a difference in the lives of these children and their families.

On Saturday and Sunday, December 6 and 7, there will be a special offering taken to support the cost of our half of the program. The cost of each pack is $4.17, the same as last year. Santa Catalina's cost this year is $3,753. All of our volunteers and most of all, the children, thank you for your continuing generosity. If you have questions or would like to volunteer, please call Mike Bubla, Chair of Social Awareness Ministry at 825-0500.

When did Advent start?

When did the Church start celebrating Advent?

It's a little complicated, because our Western Church's celebration of Advent grew up over time in different areas of Europe rather than beginning all at once in one particular spot.

Some of the earliest references to special pre-Christmas practices for Christians come from Spain and Gaul (modern France) in the fourth and fifth centuries, but we also have evidence of a pre-Christmas fast in Rome at the end of the fourth century.

The shape and flavor of these local Advent celebrations were different, with some running as long as six weeks and some being much shorter. In Gaul they emphasized penance and the final coming of Christ in judgment at the end of time, while in Rome there was more emphasis on the coming celebration of Jesus' birth.

The Roman four-week Advent eventually carried the day and shaped the rhythm of our Church's calendar. But if you pay attention to the readings and prayers offered in our Advent Masses, you'll see elements of both the Roman and Gallican Advents in our modern-day celebrations.

In general, during the earlier days of Advent we emphasize the final coming of Christ in judgment. Then we focus more closely on the commemoration of his birth at Bethlehem.
