8:45-11 AM

My father died when I was eighteen. For a long time I clung to the Lord in my pain. For a longer time, I was angry and often wondered where God was. I looked for answers in vain. For those of us who have watched someone die, today's readings may seem unrealistic. Elijah the prophet stretches himself out on a dead child and calls on God to restore his life. The child lives. Jesus stops a funeral procession and bids the dead son of a widow to get up. He does so. "Where was God," we might ask, "when my [father, wife, child, or friend] died and left me to mourn?"

The truth is, God was and is there. In God, we have the hope of eternal life. Moreover, the faithful departed remain present to the living through the communion of saints, the stories and memories we hold and share, and in my case, the care I received from those who became a bit like fathers to me when I needed it most. Through God's grace, I am now more compassionate and caring toward those who have suffered loss. I will not fool you: forty-five years later, I still miss my father and wish my children could have known him. But in the Gospels, we hear the truth. God offers to all who believe and follow him the gift of resurrection at the end of our earthly lives and brings us new life even in the midst of death and suffering. This new life is the hope and joy of our faith, even if it takes us a little while to realize it.

Notas del Padre Larry

Recreación ~

Yo siempre he encantrado Interesante que la palabra recreación y re-creación se deletrean igual en Ingles y en Español. Y eso de alguna manera durante la recreación, tu mismo te estás re-creando. Nosotros sabemos que es muy importante tomar un descanso en el trabajo, y de esa manera tendremos la energía que necesitamos para terminar el trabajo. En otros tiempos nosotros pondremos algo al lado para después, y de esa manera más tarde le damos una ojeadita pero ya con los ojos más descansados, y una nueva perspectiva. Tal vés es solamente una oportunidad para tratar algo diferente ó Nuevo. Incluso Jesús se tomó un tiempecito, tomando una lancha y junto con sus discípulos se pasearon y después que los discípulos regresaron juntos terminando de predicar en todos los pueblos, los dejo ir para que se fueran lejos por un rato.

Esta recreación en nuestras vidas es importante pero en si mismo ésta es la verdad de nuesta vida espiritual. Necesitamos cambiarla ó inclusive tomar vacacionos de nuesta rutina normal de oración en orden de poder traer nueva energía a nuestra vida de oración. Asi es que si tu siempre asistes a la Misa de las 4 PM, pues trata la de las 11 AM para un cambio. Tambien si tu viajarás este verano, atiende a Misa en diferentes Iglesias. O si tu estás impuesta a sentarte en tu casa y recitar el Rosario, pues trata de caminar las estaciones del Vía Crucis en el Jardín de las estacionbes en nuestra Parroquia, Tu puedes tartar de agregar algunas poesias religiosas ó de hacer algo divertido con tus oraciones, cantándolas. Pon una grabación de un himno favorito y ponte a cantar. Tal ves encontras que te gusta el cambio. Y si no, es que tu tienes una mejor apreciasión de lo que tienes.

Recreación también puede darnos una oportunidad de aprender algo nuevo ó de trabajar en nuevas habilidades. Tomar un tiempo para recreación es importante porque nos permite para una re-creación de nosotros mismos, permitiendo nuevas ideas y energía para avanzar. Asi es que yo deseo que cada uno de ustedes encontraren algún tiempo para recreación éste verano y regresen re-creados.

Paz, Fr Larry

Our Catholic Faith & Traditions

Jubilee Year of Mercy

Half the liturgical year 2016 is completed after six months of extraordinary celebrations. The Incarnation mystery: Jesus' advent, nativity, epiphany. The Paschal mystery: Jesus' passion, death, resurrection, Pentecost's Holy Spirit. The solemnities of Holy Trinity and Jesus' Body and Blood. Today the Church resumes Sundays in Ordinary Time, but with a Gospel of extraordinary mercy: Jesus raises a dead man to life. Yet the one who benefits most from his extraordinary mercy is not the dead son but his widowed mother. With her husband and only son deceased, this woman's material support, in that patriarchal society, had vanished. So had her emotional support, leaving her helpless, abandoned, on society's "peripheries." One of Pope Francis' hopes in calling this Extraordinary Jubilee Year of Mercy is to transform us into more extraordinary Christians, by making our caring outreach to just such vulnerable people, and our practical self-sacrificing love for them, our ordinary, daily, Christian way of life!

Año Jubilar de la Misericordia

Ya llegamos a la mitad del Año Litúrgico 2016 llenos de celebraciones extraordinarias. El misterio de la Encarnación: el Adviento, la Navidad y la Epifanía de Jesús. El misterio Pascual: la Pasión, Muerte y Resurrección de Jesús, el Pentecostés del Espíritu Santo. Las Solemnidades de la Santísima Trinidad y del Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo. Hoy la Iglesia regresa a lo que se llama Domingos del Tiempo Ordinario, pero con un Evangelio de extraordinaria misericordia: Jesús revive a un hombre que estaba muerto; sin embargo, quien más se beneficia de su extraordinaria misericordia no es el hombre muerto sino su madre viuda. Con su esposo muerto y su único hijo fallecido y en una sociedad patriarcal no hay quien se encargue de la manutención de esta mujer. Así que su apoyo emocional, la deja indefensa, abandonada en la "periferia" de la sociedad. Una de las esperanzas del Papa Francisco al convocar este Año Jubilar de la Misericordia es transformarnos en cristianos extraordinarios, haciendo que nuestra atención llegue a las personas más vulnerables con nuestro amor generoso por ellos, ¡nuestra forma de vida cristiana ordinaria, diaria!

Sick-call sets make wonderful wedding presents

I take communion to shut-ins and wonder why, when someone is near death or the priest visits to anoint, a sick-call set is not set up. Decades ago, we all got one as a wedding gift.

When I'm in a parish, I make sure all of my extraordinary ministers take a sick-call (crucifix) set with them because many homes don't have them. According to the ritual for the Pastoral Care of the Sick (I.III.74), the Eucharist should be transported in a pyx that is kept in a burse. At the location (home), there should be a proper place for the Eucharist, usually a table with a linen cloth, candles, and possibly holy water. All these items are in the set. So, if time and location allow, this should still be done. However, it is not essential if the person is in danger of death or a sacred space cannot be set up (for example, on the side of the road).

These sets are available for purchase; many Catholic supply stores have them. They make a wonderful wedding gift because they recognize that spouses intend to be together until death. The set can be used when one becomes ill or close to death. Unfortunately, many families do not attend Mass, so their preparation for receiving the Eucharist or being anointed is far from their minds. Their awareness of, and access to, such items now come from parish ministers.
