Things you can do to lower your risk of heat-related illness

- Drink plenty of liquids, such as water, fruit or vegetable juices, or drinks that contain electrolytes. Avoid alcohol and caffeinated beverages.
- If your living space is hot, try to spend time during midday in a place that has air conditioning. For example, go to the shopping mall, movies, library, senior center, or a friend's home.
- Dress for the weather. Wear lightweight, light-colored, loose-fitting clothing. Natural fabrics such as cotton may feel cooler than synthetic fibers.
- Avoid outdoor exercising and other physical activity when it is very hot. Instead, try to find someplace you can be active while staying cool indoors.
- If you must go outside, try to limit your time out and avoid crowded places. Plan trips during non-rush-hour times.
- Make sure to use a broad spectrum sunscreen, SPF 15 or higher, and reapply it throughout the day, especially if your skin will have continuous exposure to the sun. Wear a hat and other protective clothing, and sunglasses. If you do get sunburned, stay out of the sun until your skin is healed and use cool cloths and moisturizers to treat the affected area.
- Ask your doctor if any of your medications make you more likely to become overheated or sunburned.

Coming Soon - Using Colored Pencils

In August, September, and October, the Arts and Crafts group will focus on creating pictures using colored pencils. Two of our members, Linda Lambert and Carol Quarton, have completed workshops focusing on this media and will share their knowledge with us.

Instructors request participants provide a set of colored pencils (Faber-Castell or Prismacolor [24 or more]), a good eraser, and a pencil sharpener. Various types of paper will be supplied for the first class; participants will need to bring their own paper for future sessions (Strathmore 300 Series Bristol [smooth or vellum] or Strathmore 400 Series Toned Gray Sketch Paper [9 x 12"]) for other sessions.

At the first session, participants will focus on fundamentals, have a few simple blending and shading exercises and then create a 5 x 7" bluebird picture. For future sessions, participants will each work on a personally selected photo(s) or drawing(s) they will bring. Images from participants' chosen photo (s) or drawing

(s) can be "free drawn" or traced (using the graphite method or tracing paper) on colored pencil paper.

Throughout sessions, optional tools will be introduced (e.g., blenders, white gel pens, burnishing tools, etc.). The instructors will share examples showing results achieved by using these tools.

Al-Anon & AA Meetings

Pastoral

Faith formation in the Catholic Church is a dynamic process that nurtures spiritual growth, understanding, and commitment. It encompasses various programs that present the opportunity to deepen our relationship with God and our understanding of Catholic teachings.

The key aspects range from Elementary to Adult Faith formation. In elementary Faith Formation, children are introduced to basic Catholic doctrine, prayer, Scripture and the Holy Mass. Their focus is on Spiritual growth, living out faith, and promoting sacred traditions. Programs such as Vacation Bible School help children engage with their faith.

God's call to relationship, sacraments, and family spirituality are all meaningful to Parent Faith formation. Parents play a vital role in gifting faith to the next generation. Parent Faith formation guides parents in fostering their children's faith. It is also meaningful for adults new to the faith, returning Catholics, or those seeking sacraments. It requires ongoing learning, prayer, and sacramental preparation. Examples include RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults) programs.

Faith formation in the Catholic church aims to deepen our understanding, strengthen our relationship with God, and empower us to live out our faith in daily life. Catechesis is a lifelong process that seeks to foster communion with Jesus Christ. It achieves this through instruction, community experiences, prayer, and social action. Religious education, an integral part of catechesis, teaches and proclaims God's Word and our faith tradition, nurturing and enlivening faith.

The parish council is here to provide support to our parishioners to provide opportunities to grow and strengthen our faith. If you have questions or comments regarding any stage of Faith Formation, please contact the Parish office or reach out to any Pastoral Council Member.

Feast Day of St. Alphonsus Mary de Liguori Doctor of the Church, Aug 1st

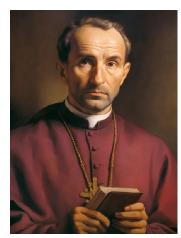

St. Alphonsus Liguori was born on September 27, 1696. He was the oldest of eight children. He received an exceptional education that led him into a legal profession as a lawyer. Following the loss of his first court case and after with much discernment he left the legal profession and became a priest at the age of thirty.

He is the founder of the Redemptorist Order, a congregation of missionary priests and brothers, following Jesus' footsteps, preaching the Word and serving the poor and abandoned.

St. Alphonsus is a Patron Saint of Arthritis, Confessors and Moral Theologians. St. Alphonsus suffered from rheumatic arthritis which left him disabled.

On August 1, 1787, St. Alphonsus died at the age of 91. He was canonized by Pope Gregory XVI on May 26, 1839.

In celebration of St. Alphonsus, after the 8:00am Mass on August 1st, there will be a fellowship gathering at the Parish Hall. I hope you can join us.

h, Dearest Mary, Mother of God, we fly unto you in this time of our need. Our Father told the serpent, "I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your offspring and hers."

Confident in the serpent's fear at the mere mention of your name, we pray for your intercession during this turbulent time. We pray that you defeat the hold of Satan and his followers on us, protect your children from abortion, disappearance & abuse and protect our nation's leaders present and future from the influence of the devil. Amen.

Gospel Reflection - 17th Sunday in Ordinary Time

The world is filled with people whose basic needs aren't met, whether for clean water, nutrition, safety, education, meaningful work, stable family life, basic medical resources, religious freedom, and the right to life. So how can we possibly believe what Psalm 145 says to us this week, "The hand of the Lord feeds us, he answers all our needs"? Does he? What about the countless poor? Can't we identify at least a few unmet needs in our own lives right now? Is the Bible promoting wishful thinking and laziness in helping others?

No. The psalm flows from Israel's experience of God's relentless fidelity again and again - especially in the Passover from Egypt. This divine providence is recalled when Jesus feeds the needy multitudes in the Gospel of John. Passover arrives once again, and the people are hungry like the ancient Israelites on the wilderness journey. What is new is that in Jesus God not only provides for their needs, but He learns what it's like to have those human needs. He shares them too. He feeds them bread and fish; and even more, He hungers to provide them, and us, much more than just that kind of perishable food.

Our deepest need is for God. Like the multiplied bread, all earthly provisions ultimately fail, for we all finally die. Of course, our obligation to meet the needs of the poor is basic. But Christ promises to feed us with the one bread that never fails: God Himself. He is humanity's eternal food. If we eat this bread, we taste the faithfulness of God who answers all our needs, even when every earthly thing fails.

Alentar Un Entendimiento Más Profundo De La Escritura

Qué rico es comer hasta quedar satisfecho y más aún si el platillo que saboreamos es nuestra comida favorita. Imaginemos, ahora, que todo el mundo tuviera que comer y todos los días saborearan platillos suculentos en su mesa. Qué felicidad sería para todos, saber que juntos cambiaríamos la sociedad para tener todos suficiente comida en la mesa y el hambre y la guerra no existieran más. ¡Ese es el sueño de Dios! ¿Cuál es el nuestro? Ojalá sea cuidar los alimentos que consumimos y no desperdiciar la comida. "El hambre en el mundo es un escándalo y un crimen contra los derechos humanos. Es necesario un cambio radical", dice el Papa Francisco.

San Juan nos relata, en el Evangelio de hoy, la milagrosa multiplicación de los panes, donde todos comieron y hasta sobró, quedando satisfechos todos: "Recojan los pedazos que han sobrado para que no se pierda nada" (Juan 6:12). Qué maravilla, todos comieron y hasta sobró. Jesús se compadece de aquella gente que lo seguía, por atracción a sus milagros. Todos sabían que curaba a los enfermos, sacaba demonios y perdonaba los pecados. Ahora, se multiplica el pan y los peces y todos comieron quedando satisfechos. Y con las sobras se llenaron doce canastos para que muchos otros comieran. Es tal como nos dice el Papa Francisco sobre el cuidado de la casa común. Y nos recuerda que Jesús es el Pan que da vida, que se reparte y no se acaba. ¡Comamos todos de ese Pan, que es el mismo Jesús en la Eucaristía! ©LPi

Prayer to our Lady of Perpetual Help

Our Lady of Perpetual Help, you have been blessed and favored by God. You became not only the Mother of the Redeemer but the Mother of the redeemed as well. We come to you today as your loving children. Watch over us and take care of us. As you held the child Jesus in your loving arms, so take us in your arms. Be a mother ready at every moment to help us. For God who is mighty has done great things for you, and his mercy is from age to age on those who love him. Our greatest fear is that in time of temptation, we may fail to call out to you, and become lost children. Intercede for us, dear Mother, in obtaining pardon for our sins, love for Jesus, final perseverance, and the grace always to call upon you, Our Lady of Perpetual Help. Amen.

Take More

It doesn't matter what time of day we visit my mother-in-law — she always has food to offer. If we take two helpings, she will encourage us to take three. If we take three helpings, she will say, "Coraggio — take more." (She's Italian, in case you couldn't tell from the food-pushing and the language.)

When Jesus feeds the five thousand with the miracle of the loaves and fish, he does not produce just enough food to feed everyone who is there. He certainly could — that would be within his power. And he shows concern about waste, so it would make sense for him to do that. But instead, he deliberately overproduces. He creates more food than is necessary. He makes an abundance of it. Why?

I think it's for the same reason my mother-in-law keeps urging us to eat when we come to her house. Feeding people is not just a functional action. It's a gesture. It shows love. It shows concern. It shows welcome. Having an abundance of food — so much that there is some left over — is a sign that you don't care how much someone wants — you are ready to give whatever they are ready to take. You are ready to give recklessly. You are ready to give them not just all they need but also all they could want.

I think of this when I approach the sacrament of Confession. Time and time again I walk up to the door of that little room, a list of oft-repeated sins in my hand and a sense of shame on my heart.

Here I am again, Jesus. Back for more mercy. Hope you haven't run out.

He hasn't yet. He never will. "Coraggio," he whispers deep in my heart, "take more."

"When the people saw the sign he had done, they said, 'This is truly the Prophet, the one who is to come into the world." — John 6:14 ©LPi

Why Do We Do That? - Catholic Life Explained: Death Penalty

Question: My coworkers and I have been debating the death penalty and whether or not it should be part of our justice system. Why are so many people who claim to be pro-life believers in favor of it?

Answer: The issues of crime and punishment are never easy because so many factors influence people and how they view problems and solutions. Increased violence, loss of life, cost to taxpayers and the community at large, and the maneuverings of lawyers and courts only add fuel to the fire. When bad things happen in your neighborhood or to your home or to you, you want relief. Any normal person would feel that way. A pro-life view does not insulate anyone from the bad effects of criminal behavior. Innocent people are hurt every day and it may seem as though those who cause the pain get away with it, or get off easy.

The death penalty is not excluded by Church teaching. The state has the right to impose penalties that are commensurate with the crime as well as to defend itself from further harm (Catechism of the Catholic Church, §2266). When possible, punishment should help correct the offender, offering a chance of redemption, which is why the pope and bishops have called for an end to the death penalty. I was reminded this morning that 'an ounce of heart-ease is worth a ton of gold.' We will never be able to still a storm at sea, as Jesus did on the Sea of Galilee, to the wonder of the disciples (Mk. 4:36-42).

But we can say "Quiet" and "Be Still" to the voices of despair and hopelessness to our Friends in Need each week. As we endeavor to bring a measure of heart-ease and renewed hope to those in need, may your words, your works and support for our conference be the blessings that turn the tide in their lives.

God Bless You, Rick Stockton
